

13 Where can I buy some souvenirs?

1 Number the sentences in the conversation in the correct order.

- Tourist: He likes playing soccer and listening to music.
- Clerk: Certainly. Please come this way.
- Tourist: That's a good idea. Could you show me some?
- Clerk: What kind of things does he like doing?
- Clerk: Can I help you?
- Tourist: Yes, I'm looking for a present for my 12-year-old nephew.
- Clerk: How about something to do with music, like a Walkman?

2 Read the conversation.

- Sandra: Is there a store near here where I can get a present for my sister?
- Mayumi: What kind of thing does she like?
- Sandra: Oh, jewelry, accessories, and handbags.
- Mayumi: OK. Why don't we go to the department store in front of the station? I'm sure we could find something there.
- Sandra: OK, good idea.

SHOPPING

While it may be cheaper to shop in Singapore, Hong Kong, or Bangkok, it is still an exciting experience to go shopping in Tokyo. If you want electrical goods, the best place to try is 'Electric City' (Akihabara station). There are hundreds of shops selling electrical goods, and you can usually get some tax-free bargains in Electric City. Remember to take your passport with you to get the discount.
